10:00 am to 10:30 am	Event Inauguration
10:45 am to 11:30 am Speaker: Natalia Bagdavadze British Council, Georgia	The Importance of Debriefing in Learning This talk examines the debriefing strategies that aid in the creation of a sense of progress by guiding learners through the experiential learning cycle. The trainer will highlight the benefits of debriefing and share practical activities and techniques that would give participants the confidence to explore debrief techniques in their own classrooms.
01:00 pm to 01:45 pm Speaker: Shonali Khanna British Council, India	Teacher Resilience: Thrive rather than Survive In the presentation, the trainer will endeavour to identify and understand the common factors promoting teacher resilience and discuss solutions to the challenges that often arise in our professional environment. She will also demonstrate how these solutions can be practically applied in a teacher's own work context fostering resilience and empowerment.
02:00 pm to 02:45 pm Speaker: William Owen British Council, Egypt	The Thinking Classroom: Philosophy and Metacognition in Secondary Classes This session focuses on the use of philosophy and metacognition in the secondary classroom and the contributions they can have towards developing creative and critical thinking. Socratic thinking, essential questions, thinking hats and more can be used in class to build logic, problem solving and critical thinking skills.
03:00 pm to 03:45 pm Speaker: Siham Merzouk British Council, Algeria	Using Drama in Face-to-face and Online Teaching This session will introduce a set of drama activities such as hot seating, thought tracking, role on the wall and freeze frames that can be used to teach different school subjects, and trigger creative thinking in the teens' classroom. The trainer will share ideas for adapting some of these activities for online classes.
